BETH COLVIN
President
Zonta Club of Joliet

Happy New Year, Zontians,

Thank you to "On the Rocks," we raised $1600 from Bloody Mary & raffle ticket sales in November. Please stop in and say hi and thank you for supporting our club and the community. The Advocacy & Service Committee had a very successful 16 days of Activism Campaign. ZCJA would like to thank John & Jessica Bays for graciously allowing us to place a banner on their property at the corner of Larkin Ave & Black Rd. Thank you, Bonnie Horne for all your coordinating efforts.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I would like to thank all the members who donated & distributed the holiday cards on December 6th to the very appreciative residents at Sunny Hill Nursing Home. We also thank the Fearless Females for signing the cards.

Dianna and Carmie, you certainly know how to throw a party! Thank you for your very generous donation to the Z Club. What a fantastic time had by all!

Zontians, we raised $1600 in donations for a family that needed help this past holiday. I am so proud to be a part of this incredible club. Thank you to Terri King & Donna Zanzola for taking care of ALL the shopping and wrapping.

The Scholarship committee have sent out the 2023 applications to the schools; if you have any questions please contact Joann Potenziani.

This year's fundraiser will be a Mardi Gras Luncheon on Sunday, February 5th at The Jacob Henry Mansion Victorian Ballroom. If you would like more tickets, please contact Kathy Giegerich. Please bring your packets to the January meeting. Let's get busy selling tickets and ads for this fantastic event!

Our third annual film festival, LUNAFEST, will be on Thursday, March 30, at The Renaissance Center. LUNAFEST is an inspirational short film festival by and about women. Luna began this festival in 2001 as a way to amplify diverse voices, challenge perceptions, and spark conversations, which matches the ZCJA's mission and goals. More details coming soon!

Our first membership meeting in 2023 will be Tuesday, January 10th at 5:30. See you next week.

Stay safe and Healthy.

Sincerely,
Beth Colvin
President

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Episode #3 of the Zonta On The Move podcast is now live! In this episode, the PR team interviewed Rhonda Thomas of the Kankakee Club along with Steve Hoekstra of Hoekstra Transportation about their amazing joint venture to bring awareness to human trafficking via truck trailer wraps and training for truck drivers. We've put the link to the Spotify episode here and on our website, in both the NEWS section and on the ZOTM podcast page. You can listen then on any device of your choice, including your PC. You don't need to have a Spotify account to listen.

INTERNATIONAL

In Afghanistan especially women and girls are reeling from the recent shocking proclamations by the Taliban:

- To not allow any females attend university
- To not allow any females to work with either local or international NGOs (Non-Government Organizations).

Organizations throughout the country such as AIL (Afghan Institute of Learning), which we are supporting, have come together to demand that these proclamations be lifted. There have been demonstrations in many cities, including in Herat which is near our Jebreel Learning Center.

In 2023 we will continue to follow the tragic situation of women and girls in Afghanistan and the implications for Jebreel-----along with reviewing Zonta International's important work in other countries in Asia, Latin America, and Africa.

FROM THE TREASURER

Our Zonta club had several activities in November and December:

In November we had a mini-Fall Fundraiser. ZCJA was once again the recipient of Bloody Marys for a Cause at On the Rocks Sports Bar for the whole month. We raffled off two Bloody Mary baskets and three Chicago Cubs stocking caps (caps donated by OTR). We raised $1160 from raffle tickets sales and a donation from On the Rocks. Thank you OTR!

Our amazing Holiday Party, hosted by Dianna Gliwa, raised $725, all donated to the Z Club. Thank you Dianna, for your generosity. And thank you also for a most enjoyable evening with good food, music, and such a festive ambience.

We raised over $1600 from our generous Zontians to bless a family with a special Christmas. If you didn't see Katy Leclair's email from December 21st detailing information regarding the family and how we helped, please check it out. Thank you Katy, for helping to organize this. And thank you Zontians!
